Presidents Letter

Dear Friends and Residents,

I would like to welcome our newest UHCA board member, Laurel Smith, who has kindly volunteered to assist in the newsletters.

In August, I was nominated for an Alberta Government award for through the Ministry of Seniors and Housing for work done to establish the Senior's Dance and Movement Program. This class which takes place at the Foothills Mennonite Church on Wednesday morning from 9:30-10:30 am is now in its sixth year. Although I did not win the award, it was a great honour to be recognized by this community and I thank everyone who wrote letters of support. If you have not tried the movement class it is a wonderful way to keep fit, improve your balance and strength, and meet others in the community.

Building on the strength of community partnerships, UHCA and the Foothills Mennonite Church are hosting a coffee hour and English second language conversation on Tuesday and Thursdays from 10:00 to 11:00 am. Child care is provided.

Our winter potluck will take place on December 2 from 5-8 pm. We will need volunteers to help set up the potluck and also to help with clean up at the end of the event.

If you would like to get involved in our community, please consider volunteering an hour or two a month. You can contact volunteer@uhcacalgary.org for more information on ways that you can help.

Membership Drive 2018

Please take a moment and renew your Community Association Membership. Membership helps the community in three ways:

- Advocacy
- Community Events and Celebration
- Communication and Development Updates

Membership allows the community association to inform, invite and involve the community. We have tried to make it as easy as possible this year. Membership is $20/year.

Please see the LAST PAGE for the membership form and instructions. Special thanks to the Foothills Mennonite Church for volunteering as a drop off location.

University Heights is truly a community unlike any other in this great city... and I understand this.

Over the last 5 years I've had the honour to be your Top-Selling Realtor and your expert real estate community advocate.

FACT: In the last 1/2 decade no realtor, other than myself, has sold more than 1 detached home in your community.

FACT: I've outsold the next best realtor by 10x.

FACT: I love this community like it is my own home.

And I'm so excited to continue working with the amazing people of University Heights through 2018 & beyond!

Thank you for your trust.

Coyote Information

How can I help to reduce or avoid problems with coyotes?

- Don't approach or feed coyotes.
- Secure open areas under porches, decks or steps.
- Clean up your compost, garbage and other potential food sources.
- Don't store food outside. Clean up around bird feeders. Clean up fallen fruit.
- Keep pets on a leash, in your enclosed property, or inside your home, especially at night.

What should I do if a coyote approaches or acts aggressive?

- Do NOT run or turn away
- Try to scare the animal by shouting and waving your arms overhead.
- Bang sticks or clang pots together towards the animal.
- Maintain eye contact with the animal & back away slowly.
- Pick up your small dog. (advice from Government of Alberta - Urban Coyotes brochure)

What else can I do to avoid a negative encounter?

- Never leave small children unattended.
- Never approach wildlife and teach your children not to either.
- Carry a shrill whistle or portable alarm with you in areas frequented by coyotes.
- Never feed coyotes or leave pet food (including bird seed) outdoors.
- Clean up all loose garbage and put it in approved waste receptacles with the lids on.
- Keep dogs on a leash – even in off-leash areas and especially in areas where coyotes are known to frequent.
- Coyotes can be attracted to an area by dog feces, so please clean up after your pets, even in natural environment parks.
- Cat owners should keep their pets inside their homes.

Clearing Sidewalks

In June of 2018, City Council amended the Streets Bylaw to incorporate fines for property owners who do not clear their sidewalks within 24 hours of snowfall ending. Visit calgary.ca/CSPS/ABS/Pages/Bylaws-by-topic/Snow-ice.aspx for details.

Green Cart Update!

Calgary green cart collection's winter schedule takes effect this week

Calgarians are being reminded that the city will be moving to its winter schedule for green cart pick up on Monday, Nov. 5.

That means green carts will be picked up bi-weekly instead of the current weekly pickup.

“Calgarians have less yard waste to put in their green carts during the winter months,” the city said in a release.

The rest of the details remain the same; the carts will be picked up on the same day and people are asked to have their carts out by 7 a.m.

The city said there won't be any changes to the blue or black cart pickups.

The weekly green cart collection will be back in the spring.

Residents can find more information on the new schedule, their pickup days and sign up for reminders on the city's website.

City Service Plans and Budgets

Calgary

Check out The City of Calgary's service plans and budgets for 2019-2022

Every four years, The City of Calgary creates business plans and budgets to deliver on what's important to Calgarians. The 2019-2022 service plans and budgets have been developed based on direction from Council, and what we heard from Calgarians throughout the process. These service plans and budgets were deliberated and approved by Council in November 2018 and have been outlined by city service. This service view of our plans and budgets will make it clearer what services we provide, how much those services cost, and how we are investing your tax dollars to provide you with service value and make life better every day. The University of Calgary Community Task Force

On April 13, 2018 numerous residents from University Heights called 311 to report concerns about nuisance parties. The end of year campus celebration (colloquially known as Bermuda Shorts Day) inspired massive unsanctioned off-campus partying that erupted and spilled into University Heights or “D-block”, a name students use for the area comprised of Unwin Road, Urquhart Road, and Ulster Road.

This year’s celebration resulted in a block party with an estimated 1500 attendees showing up that necessitated police shutting down traffic access to Unwin Road for several hours including a bus stop frequently used by K-12 students. Parties on Unwin Road, and the adjacent parking lot used by numerous residential families in the area, reveled in the street and many were seen breaking numerous bylaws and criminal laws. It was estimated that hundreds climbed onto a parking garage roof, private property was destroyed, and many walked into one resident’s home without knocking in an attempt to charge cell phones or use the washroom. Parties were seen urinating on private property and littering private yards with garbage, emptied beer cans, and smashed glass bottles. Both male and female parties engaged in illegal indecent exposure during and after the party. Families returning home from work had to bear the costs to clean up the mess and damages. One resident was taken to Foothills Emergency for cuts from broken glass obtained when cleaning up. Students interviewed by the Gauntlet Magazine, a U of C student publication, found the illegal party to be “quite a big event” with “a lot of people doing outrageous things, which is always fun to watch and take part in.” (The Gauntlet, Summer 2018, p. 9).

To address concerns related to this party that include public safety, laws and bylaws, standards of morality, and damage to property, UHCA representatives have been invited to participate in a University of Calgary Community Task Force along with members of the University of Calgary administration, Students Union, Graduate Students Association, Campus Security, City of Calgary, and the Calgary Police Service. A report of the Community Task Force’s findings and recommendations is expected to be provided in early 2019.

A related study is being conducted by Dr. Andrew Szeto and Andrew Kim (Graduate Student) of the University of Calgary. If you wish to be part of a focus group to discuss your concerns about the on and off-campus partying, please contact hyoun.kim@ucalgary.ca as soon as possible.

Reminder to all University Heights community members: If you are disturbed by nuisance parties, parking infractions, or other bylaw enforcement issues at any time of the year you may report the event by calling 311. In an emergency always call 911. For non-emergency situations call Calgary Police at 403-266-1234.

SENIORS MOVEMENT AND DANCE PROGRAM

UHCA Seniors... Here's an opportunity to participate with your neighbors in a fun program!

Date: Wednesday Mornings
Time: 9:30 – 10:30 a.m.
Where: Foothills Mennonite Church,
 2115 Urbana Road

Cost: $FREE (though a three dollar contribution is requested to defray the Community Association's cost for an instructor.)

We also take turns bringing a treat for the optional social time after the class. The Foothills Mennonite Church kindly provides coffee and the space at no charge – THANKS!!

Anne Flynn, Professor Emerita (Dance) in the University of Calgary's Faculty of Kinesiology collaborates with the UHCA on our program.

Some recent quotes from participants:

“This is something I really look forward to each week!”

“The instructor makes this program a lot of fun!!”

Each session uses dance and seated movement to promote participants' health. A sense of community is fostered through enjoyable movement targeted at all levels of ability. Most participants enjoy socializing after the class with members of the community.

Who is a senior?

Current participants range in age from 40 – 85+

I'm not much of a dancer – you mentioned dance?

You don't have to be much of a dancer to enjoy the class – honest!!

Why should I?

- A great opportunity to get out of the house and build community
- Get healthier

Do I need to RSVP?

No – just show up in comfortable clothes suitable for low impact exercising.

Additional questions?

Phone (403) 284-3807 and leave a detailed message with your name and phone number.

Keep Your Vehicles Safe

Auto Thieves – Crimes of Opportunity

The Calgary Police Service is once again reminding citizens to keep their vehicle secured if they are warming it up, and never leave anything in your vehicle when it is parked, particularly in front of your home.

With temperatures dropping, vehicle thieves don't have to wait long for their next opportunity. Police are asking Calgarians to take this opportunity away by making sure they take their keys with them anytime they leave their vehicle. It takes less than 30 seconds for someone to see a vehicle running and drive away with it. Since midnight on Wednesday, Nov. 1, 2017, 11 vehicles were stolen while they were left unattended to warm up.

Citizens with keyless ignitions should also be aware that their vehicles may be vulnerable when idling. At least one of the vehicles stolen while warming up had a keyless ignition and was left unlocked. Though the keys were not in the vehicle, the offender still managed to drive away with the car. Not all vehicles with keyless ignitions are equipped with an immobilizer, which would shut off a vehicle if it is driven a certain distance away from the key fob.

More than being a massive inconvenience, having a vehicle stolen can put an owner at risk of further victimization. When stealing a vehicle, offenders are also driving away with bank cards, credit cards, identification documents, garage door openers and keys that can give them access to the victim's residence or other vehicles.

CALGARY
POLICE SERVICE

Stolen vehicles can also have a significant impact on both public safety and police resources. Last week, on Monday, Oct. 23, 2017, at approximately 5:50 a.m., a vehicle that was left running and unlocked in the city's northeast was stolen. Officers located a man driving the vehicle the next day at approximately 2:30 a.m. HAWCS was utilized to track the stolen vehicle before occupants were taken into custody by RCMP near Cochrane. This incident was highly dynamic and the stolen vehicle was observed to be running red lights and driving at excessive speeds. In addition to CPS resources, members from four RCMP detachments were also involved in responding to this incident. In total, over 30 CPS and RCMP members were required to bring this call to a safe resolution. One man was charged in relation to this incident.

On October 31, 2018, a vehicle was broken into on 37 Street NW. The windshield was badly damaged, and inside the vehicle, was the garage door opener. Thieves thrive on this type of crime of opportunity. If your vehicle is outside, and the garage door opener is in the vehicle, you are inviting crime.

Citizens are reminded to:

- Never leave a running vehicle unattended. If your keys must be in the ignition to warm it up, citizens should remain with their vehicle.
- Install a remote starter if possible, however, always make sure the vehicle is locked.
- Use a steering wheel lock to deter thieves.
- Never leave children unattended in a running vehicle.
- Never leave spare keys or garage door openers in or around your vehicle. If a garage door opener goes missing at any time, the garage door should be immediately recoded.
- If your keys are stolen, immediately change the locks for the keys that have gone missing, including residences and vehicles.
- Always lock the man door leading from a garage into a residence.

Druh Farrell - December Newsletter - Holiday, Snow, Kindness

Calgary. We are friendly. We are fearless and adventurous. We are hospitable, welcoming and warm. We are entrepreneurial. We solve problems.

December can be a delightful time for family gatherings, connecting with friends, and enjoying all that the holiday season brings. For many, however, it is not as enjoyable. Economic challenges, social isolation, and simply trying to get around our winter city can make this a difficult time for less fortunate families, people living alone, or those with high mobility needs.

I would like to think that as Calgarians, our generosity toward neighbours defines us as a city. Our friendly, fearless, can-do attitude prompts “acts of kindness” to help all Calgarians thrive during the winter months. While volunteerism is important year-round, this season brings increased demand for food, clothing, and holiday giving. Women’s shelters, programs providing support to families and vulnerable seniors, and food banks are in need of volunteers and donations. It does not necessarily take big acts of kindness to make a difference in someone’s life – small gestures, like shoveling a neighbour’s sidewalk, can have significant impacts.

The City needs to play its part too. As an advocate for people who walk, cycle, and have high mobility needs, I secured new funding for more snow clearing on sidewalks and pathways. We will now provide enhanced clearing on high priority wheelchair ramps, 24-hour clearing of all sidewalks adjacent to City property, and an additional 100 kilometers of pathway clearing. To help us do better still, you can help by reporting snow clearing concerns to 311.

Working together, Calgarians can make the winter months enjoyable for all. Dale, Romy, Katie, and I wish everyone a wonderful holiday season, and hope you find time to personally experience the things that make this season bright. Maybe lace up your skates and head to Prince’s Island Park or Olympic Plaza for a family skate. Whatever your plans, remember it is most important to be kind to yourself and to each other.

Actions on the Growth of Illegal Rentals in Our Single Family Zoned Area

Submitted by Pat Muir and Wayne Davies

Communities around universities in many cities have long been subject to a process of 'studentification' whereby neighbourhoods are taken over by student housing. Parts of our community are experiencing the problems associated with illegal rentals as shown by a survey in the north east area of University Heights (UH) earlier this year that created a Community Watch area. For example, of the 61 houses in the area east of Udell Rd, 20% were no longer single-family units, but were illegally operating as lodging houses for students, plus there were three long term vacant units. Similar trends have occurred along 24th Ave and nearby areas. Most of these homes are not owner-occupied. Some UH neighbours have complained to 311 about poor yard maintenance, lack of snow removal, increased parking, large parties and noise problems, illegal firepits, and other infractions. This year one of these illegal rental units had a serious fire because of a cigarette dropped off a deck, leading to over $100,000 worth of damage, while we have seen most of one back garden in a rental property turned into a parking lot.

Concerns about these changes led to the creation of a Preservation Committee, independent from the UHCA, in early 2018 to seek ways of counteracting this trend in our single-family zoned area. By July we had 50 supporters, mainly in the survey area, but extending into the area north of Underhill Drive. Originally, we thought that existing city bylaws could prevent the growth of illegal rental houses. The City of Calgary Bylaw 32M98 Section 41 states: "Lodging House means the business of providing sleeping or lodging accommodation for compensation, with or without meals, for four or more persons, but does not include a Hotel/Motel or Apartment Building Operator." Lodging Houses require a Business License following consultation or approval by Calgary Fire Department, Alberta Health Services and the City Planning, Development and Assessment Department. In late March we provided information from rental ads to the city Bylaw Department about several illegal rental properties with four or more tenants which did not have licenses. The Bylaw Department assured us that inspections by health, fire, and planning would take place before a license was granted. However over six months have gone by, and not all the inspections have taken place. Furthermore, we discovered that changes in the licensing decisions some years ago mean that a business license for a lodging house does NOT involve community input any longer. So, our ability to reduce illegal lodging houses via this route seems minimal at this time, unless Calgary adopts a bylaw such as one in Edmonton which restricts Congregate Living Facilities (which include Lodging Houses) to two per block with no more than three such facilities per 1000 people in a neighbourhood, specifies parking requirements, and limits the number of residents per block in these facilities. It is worth noting that in Winnipeg a councilor initiated a survey around the University of Manitoba and identified over 180 illegal rentals, which is leading to action to reduce these numbers. Progress has been occurring elsewhere.

Given this situation, the Preservation Committee decided to explore the use of the Restrictive Covenants (RCs) we all have on our houses in the single-family zone (RC1) to deal with some of these growing problems. Our RCs specify that only single-family units are allowed in our RC1 area, therefore secondary suites are a contravention of our RCs. Furthermore, businesses such as lodging houses are prohibited. Although the City of Calgary's Planning and Development Department has chosen not to enforce restrictive covenants, we discovered that communities in Alberta have successfully gone to court to prevent development contrary to clauses in their RCs. After consulting with a lawyer familiar with the field, legal letters were sent to several of the lodging houses contravening our RCs. A resolution of this matter will probably require court action. Hence our Preservation Society created a separate Restrictive Covenant Committee to inform community members of their actions and to recruit supporters who wish to maintain the integrity of our community and are willing to contribute to a legal fund to fight the unwanted development. We hope others will support the committee, in the same way that many contributed to a fund to help us fight the Stadium Shopping Centre Development. More information on the work of the University Heights Restrictive Covenant Committee and applications to support their work can be obtained by e-mailing UHCAPC@gmail.com

The easiest thing to do is to ignore this unwelcome trend. However, ignoring our RCs could ultimately render them ineffective and open the door for subdivision of lots and other undesirable developments. The increase in illegal housing WILL spread unless we take a stand. Please help..... W. Davies and P. Muir for the Preservation Committee, October, 2018.
